1 Designer swap

THE Clothing Exchange is gearing up for its 35th clothing swap and this time they expect A-listers to turn up.

On June 23, more than 400 pre-loved designer and vintage pieces will be swapped. Founder, Juliette Anich says: "It's been accepted as a more normal way to acquire clothing.

"We're now seeing high-profile politicians and editors from magazines like Marie Claire attend." The next swap will be in the Hotel Clarendon, Surry Hills. Go to www.clothingexchange.com.au for more details.

2 Stylish scarf

PARLOUR X owner, Eva Galambos is preparing for her tenth anniversary party this Tuesday. The style maven teamed up with Archibald prize winner, Del Kathryn Barton to create a giant silk scarf for charity.

"Del loves avant-garde fashion and her work can be quite provocative which I think is beautiful," Galambos said.

Samantha Harris, who modelled the scarf, will be at the event. For details go to www.parlourx.com.

Model earnings

TOP model winner Tahnee Atkinson is more in demand than ever this year, scoring lucrative advertising campaigns worth hundreds of thousands of dollars.

Last week, the curvaceous beauty wrapped Review's spring campaign featuring retro dresses (pictured, right) perfect for voluptuous figures.

"I love the new Doll House collection because of the gorgeous 60's inspired dresses and candy pink palette," Atkinson said. In the last few months she's shot ads for Peter Alexander, David Jones, Levis and Jets. The Priscilla's model will go to New York for castings later in the year.

4 Hot e-deals

WATCH out Net-a-porter — top UK e-tailer, Asos plans to launch an Aussie site later this year with thousands of hot brands.
